High & Low Water program: The lower Mekong River has a seasonal tide that impacts the operational schedule of the cruise itinerary in Cambodia. A high water program applies in the period between the end of August and mid-November (approximate). The rest of the year, a low water program is operated (mid-November - End of August). The general cruise experience is not affected, but a crossing of the Tonle Lake is not possible during low water. Please pay attention to the water level icon in the cruise program.

DAY 1 SIEM REAP - STUENG TRANG - KAMPONG CHAM - ANGKOR BAN

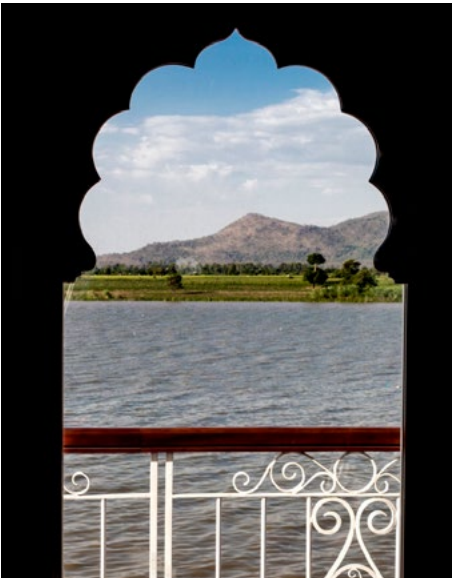

Upon boarding, the crew will extend a warm welcome, guiding guests to staterooms and providing a briefing on the cabin’s facilities. After spending some time to settle in and explore the vessel, a welcome lunch buffet awaits, followed by a safety and welcome briefing in the lobby by the cruise director.

Guests leave the ship for a first excursion in the afternoon. By bus, get to explore the so called high-land of the Kampong Cham, an important trade and transportation hub but it still maintains scattered small hamlets around the outskirts where the community’s rhythm blends with the skilled hands of artisans. For instance, in Cheung Krok, locals craft various handmade items, whether it’s food, fashion, or other everyday goods. The nearby Bamboo bridge, which is erected seasonally, serves as more than just a passageway; it’s a gateway to the past.

Optional Tours

As the sun sets, guests back on board sailing with the flow of the Mekong River towards Angkor Ban for the overnight mooring. Meet a bit closer with fellow travellers during a welcome event at the bar with canapés and prosecco with the Mekong shores providing a perfect backdrop to it. After dinner, the evening cinema opens, featuring either an intriguing classic movie or a captivating documentary.

DAY 2 ANGKOR BAN - PREK BANGKONG - KAMPONG LAEANG

Begin the day with a Tai Chi session before exploring the charming village of Angkor Ban.

Discover the hidden treasures of this village, which houses a monastery and a charming local community. Meet monks during their morning class and engage with friendly villagers, immersing yourself in their way of life and capturing beautiful memories of Cambodia’s rustic lifestyle.

Optional Tours

The ship sails downstream toward Phnom Penh, with a stop at a small silk-weaving community before reaching the capital. Visit Prek Bangkong village, known for its silk-weaving community and former residence of the Royal family.

Marvel at the intricate silk production process and visit the heritage house of H.E. Sam-El, a renowned architect for the royal family.

Optional Tours

Enjoy a multi-course menu and an entertaining evening cinema as the ship moors midstream in the Tonle River, overlooking the captivating Phnom Penh skyline.

DINING: B, L, D

During the dry season (Dec-Apr), the Tonle Lake contributes around 50% of the flow to the Mekong Delta in Vietnam. During the rainy season, the Mekong becomes a swelling reservoir and can increase its height by 10 meters, transforming into a vast expanse of water. As it reaches Cambodia’s capital city of Phnom Penh, the volume of water is so immense that it forces the Tonle River to reverse its flow, restoring balance to the region.

DAY 3 KAMPONG LAEANG - KAMPONG TRALACH - PHNOM PENH

Discover Kampong Laeang, located across from the renowned pottery town of Kampong Chhnang. Embark on tuk-tuks to delve into rural Cambodian life. Explore locals, witness pottery making, and visit a charming pre-Angkorian temple. From a vantage point, take in panoramic views of expansive floodplains and lush rice fields (seasonal).

Optional Tours

As the ship sails south to Kampong Tralach, enjoy a lunch with breathtaking views of the Tonle River. An afternoon tea is served before the next excursion.

Discover the rural Cambodian countryside of Kampong Tralach. Journey along picturesque rice paddies aboard an ox-pulled cart, reaching a small village where guests can learn about a local NGO school and library project or visit the ancient 300-year-old temple and Buddha shrine.

Optional Tours

Sailing further down the Tonle River, the ship reaches Phnom Penh, where it moors mid-stream, offering views of the vibrant city skyline

DAY 1 SIEM REAP - KAMPONG LAEANG (TONLE RIVER)

Greeting guests in the morning at the welcome lounge in Siem Reap. Kick back with a second coffee this morning before departing on a short bus ride to the pier. Bid farewell to the iconic sights of Angkor as the journey continues to the shore of Tonle Lake. A local boat transports guests to the vessel, their luxurious “home” for the next several days.

During lunch, the vessel gently glides over Tonle Lake: the Tonle Sap (Sap means Lake in the Cambodian language) varies from 2,500 sqkm (965 sqmi) in size and 160 km (99 mi) in length during the dry season to an astonishing area of 16,000 sqkm (6,000 sqmi) and length of 250 km (160 mi) in the wet season. Let the soul float while the boat makes its way across the lake During afternoon tea time, guests can get to know other travellers. Enjoy time on the decks or get pampered by therapists at the Spa.

Before dinner, our expert guide holds a presentation about the geography of the Mekong River and Tonle Lake. Guests are welcome to join the nightly cinema in the lounge before retiring to their rooms.

DAY 2 KAMPONG LAEANG - KAMPONG TRALACH - KAMPONG CHAM (OVERNIGHT SAILING)

Discover Kampong Laeang, located across from the renowned pottery town of Kampong Chhnang. Embark on tuk-tuks to delve into rural Cambodian life. Explore the locals, witness pottery making, and visit a charming pre-Angkorian temple. From a vantage point, take in panoramic views of expansive floodplains and lush rice fields (seasonal).

Optional Tours

As sailing south to Kampong Tralach, enjoy lunch with breathtaking views of the Tonle River. Afternoon tea is served before the next excursion.

Explore the rural Cambodian countryside of Kampong Tralach. Journey along picturesque rice paddies aboard an ox-pulled cart, reaching a small village where guests can learn about a local NGO school and library project or visit the ancient 300-year-old temple and Buddha shrine.

Optional Tours

As evening falls, enjoy onboard entertainment with a fashion show before the ship sails overnight into the Mekong River.

In Khmer, Kampong Chhnang translates to the “Port of Pots.” As the name suggests, this region has been renowned for its abundant reserves of high-quality yellow clay and advanced pottery techniques since as early as the sixth century.

DAY 3 KAMPONG CHAM - ANGKOR BAN - PREK BANGKONG - PHNOM PENH

Explore Kampong Cham, an important trade hub with small hamlets blending community rhythms and skilled artisans. Witness the creation of handmade goods in Cheung Kok, ranging from food to fashion and daily necessities.

By bus, continue to Angkor Ban, which houses a monastery and a charming local community. Engage with the monks during their morning class and connect with the villagers, immersing yourself in their way of life and capturing beautiful memories of Cambodia’s rustic lifestyle.

Optional Tours

The ship sails downstream toward Phnom Penh, with a stop at a small silk-weaving community before reaching the capital. Visit Prek Bangkong village, known for its silk-weaving community and former residence of the Royal family.

Marvel at the intricate silk production process and visit the heritage house of H.E. Sam-El, a renowned architect for the royal family.

Optional Tours

After a short sailing, arrive in Phnom Penh, where the ship moors mid-stream with views of the city opposite.

DAY 4 PHNOM PENH

Welcome to Phnom Penh, a city once renowned as the “Paris of the East.” Despite its rapid development, it has retained much of its rustic charm and elegance. Phnom Penh is a remarkable city with a history and culture that spans centuries, still palpable at every street corner.

The full-day sightseeing tour begins right after breakfast, allowing exploration of the city’s highlights. Start with a cyclo ride, meandering through the town and then visit historic places such as the palace and the silver pagoda. The journey takes guests to the “S21” prison, a poignant and dark chapter in Cambodia’s history during the Khmer Rouge regime of the 1970s. Afterward, pause for a delightful lunch in town before continuing to visit one of the country’s most famous history museums, “Sosoro,” and concluding the tour with a leisurely stroll through the city’s French quarter, including the iconic and aptly named monument of Wat Phnom.

In the evening, guests are invited to an engaging expert lecture in the lounge. To cap off this eventful day, indulge in a delightful open-air barbecue and gala dinner accompanied by a classic Apsara dance performance. Afterward, feel free to explore the city at night, savouring Phnom Penh’s vibrant nightlife or taking in the lively river promenade.

DAY 5 PHNOM PENH - BORDER CROSSING - TAN CHAU

Once the ship departed, the rest of the morning and the whole afternoon is at your own disposal. It is time to switch into cruise mode and hopefully experiences the relaxing cadence this mighty river emanates. The afternoon is perfect for massages, relaxation on a terrace deck sunbed or private balcony kick-backs. Conjure up a spell to merge with the river and float into a state of mild bliss. Guests may also like to visit the bridge, as the captain always has a little story to share about “his” river. Or, if one is curious to learn more about Khmer gastronomy, join a culinary workshop to sharpen knowledge about local cuisine.

As guests sip drinks and nibble on treats during afternoon tea, the ship approach the border and finally arrive in Vietnam. From here it is just a short distance to Tan Chau, a pleasant, slow-paced border town with a sizeable Chinese, Kinh and Khmer community. The ship moors near the city with views on the riverbanks.

The Cambodian scarf, known as the Krama, is a versatile garment worn by people of all ages and backgrounds, not just around the neck, but also as a bandanna, face mask, belt, swimwear, and even as a hammock to carry children.

DAY 6 TAN CHAU - MY AN HUNG - BINH THANH ISLAND

After the morning Tai Chi session and breakfast, guests explore the renowned aquaculture area.

Boarding “xelois” in Tan Chau, guests immerse themselves in the vibrant town life. Observe the bustling workshops, street vendors, and visit the local market to witness residents’ morning shopping routines. Continue visiting Cao Dai temple and meet a priest to learn about their unique beliefs. The final destination is a local family-operated fish farm to gain insights into managing this unique business.

 Optional Tours

After returning onboard and enjoying a siesta after lunch, expert guides present Mekong Delta life as the ship continues to My An Hung near Sa Dec province.

My An Hung Village epitomizes a pristine local village in the timeless Mekong Delta. Explore a local family’s private household, witness the seasonal vegetable fields, and indulge in a Vietnamese tea tasting accompanied by a variety of freshly-cut fruits. Guests get to xperience the traditional dragon dance while enjoying the wholesome “vitamins bombs” snack.

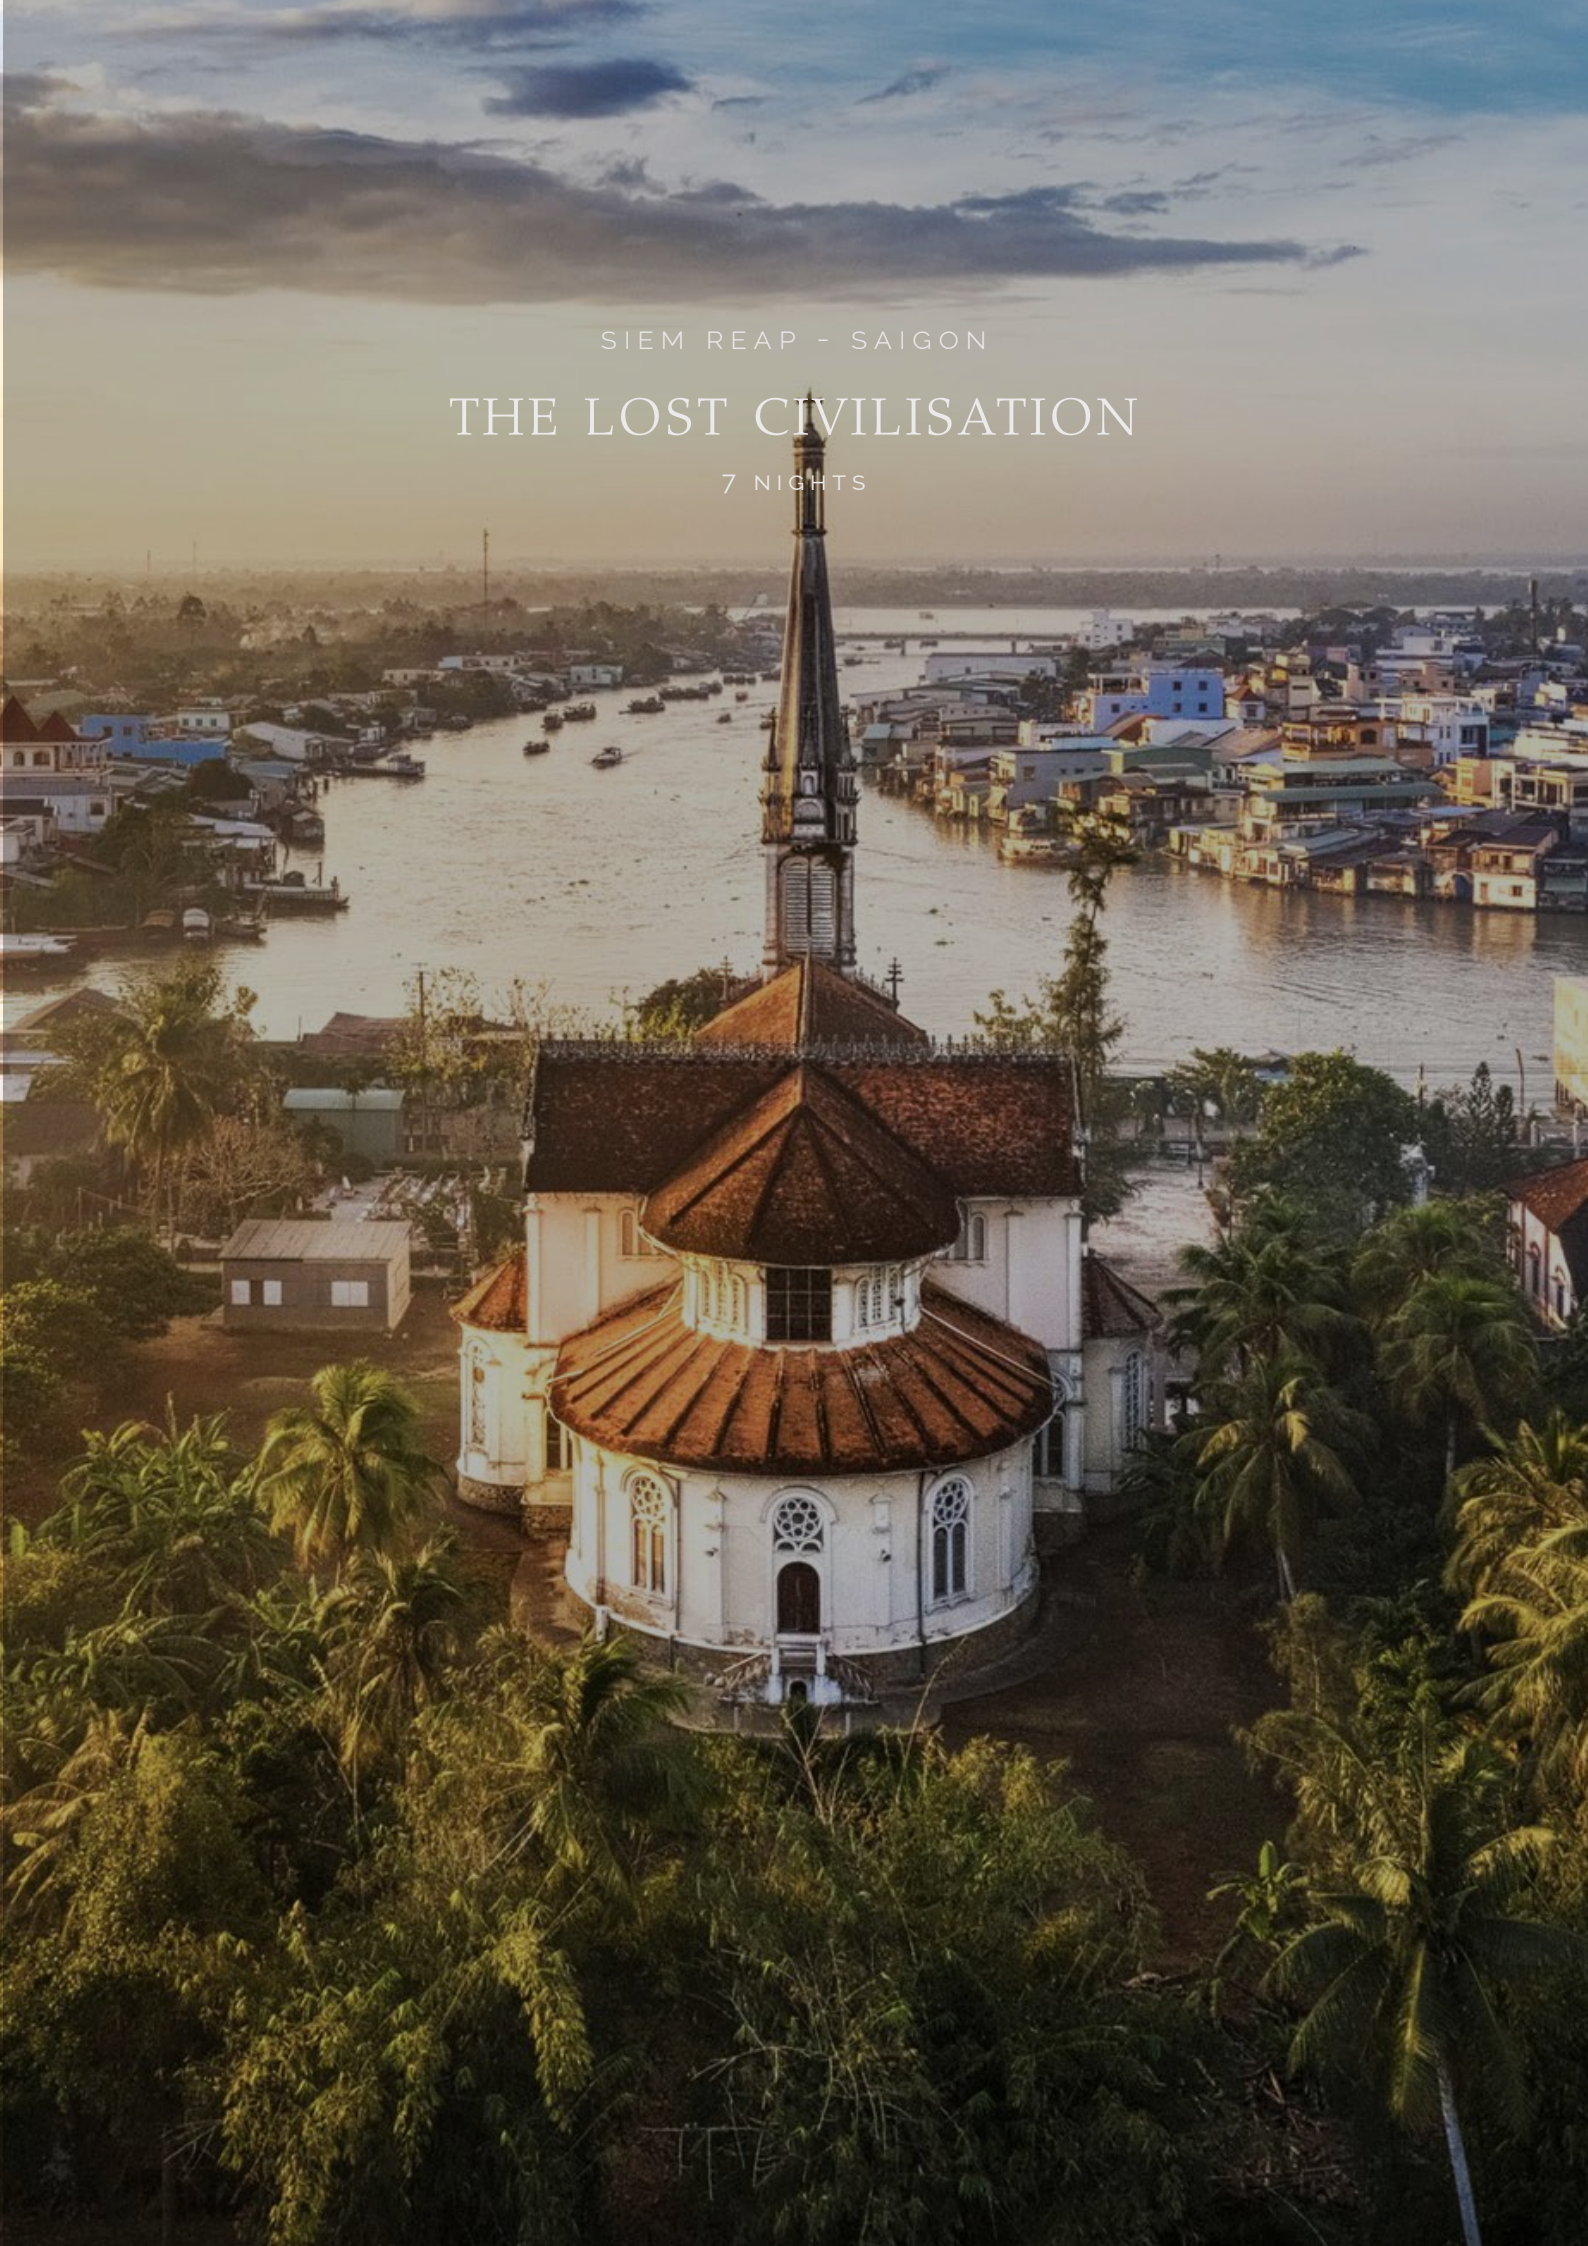

As the ship sails into the sunset, guests head towards the next destination. A complimentary cocktail hour and snacks at the pool with music and dance vibes are offered to enjoy the blue hour before dinner is served.

Greeting guests in the morning at the welcome lounge in Siem Reap. Kick back with a second coffee this morning before departing on a short bus ride to the pier. Bid farewell to the iconic sights of Angkor as the journey continues to the shore of Tonle Lake. A local boat transports guests to the vessel, their luxurious “home” for the next several days.

During lunch, the vessel gently glides over Tonle Lake: the Tonle Sap (Sap means Lake in the Cambodian language) varies from 2,500 sqkm (965 sqmi) in size and 160 km (99 mi) in length during the dry season to an astonishing area of 16,000 sqkm (6,000 sqmi) and length of 250 km (160 mi) in the wet season. Let the soul float while the boat makes its way across the lake During afternoon tea time, guests can get to know other travellers. Enjoy time on the decks or get pampered by therapists at the Spa.

Before dinner, our expert guide holds a presentation about the geography of the Mekong River and Tonle Lake. Guests are welcome to join the nightly cinema in the lounge before retiring to their rooms.

DAY 2 KAMPONG LAEANG - KAMPONG TRALACH - KAMPONG CHAM (OVERNIGHT SAILING)

Discover Kampong Laeang, located across from the renowned pottery town of Kampong Chhnang. Embark on tuk-tuks to delve into rural Cambodian life. Explore the locals, witness pottery making, and visit a charming pre-Angkorian temple. From a vantage point, take in panoramic views of expansive floodplains and lush rice fields (seasonal).

Optional Tours

As sailing south to Kampong Tralach, enjoy lunch with breathtaking views of the Tonle River. Afternoon tea is served before the next excursion.

Explore the rural Cambodian countryside of Kampong Tralach. Journey along picturesque rice paddies aboard an ox-pulled cart, reaching a small village where guests can learn about a local NGO school and library project or visit the ancient 300-year-old temple and Buddha shrine.

Optional Tours

As evening falls, enjoy onboard entertainment with a fashion show before the ship sails overnight into the Mekong River.

Mastering the Cambodian Apsara dance is a formidable task that requires considerable dedication. Young girls often commence their training at an early age, as achieving the necessary flexibility to execute the graceful hand and foot movements that make them appear as though they are floating on clouds is no small feat. At the heart of this dance are the intricate hand gestures, and the more than 1,500 finger movements involved in this art form collectively narrate captivating stories.

DAY 3 KAMPONG CHAM - ANGKOR BAN - PREK BANGKONG - PHNOM PENH

Explore Kampong Cham, an important trade hub with small hamlets blending community rhythms and skilled artisans. Witness the creation of handmade goods in Cheung Kok, ranging from food to fashion and daily necessities.

By bus, continue to Angkor Ban, which houses a monastery and a charming local community. Engage with the monks during their morning class and connect with the villagers, immersing yourself in their way of life and capturing beautiful memories of Cambodia’s rustic lifestyle.

Optional Tours

The ship sails downstream toward Phnom Penh, with a stop at a small silk-weaving community before reaching the capital.

Visit Prek Bangkong village, known for its silk-weaving community and former residence of the Royal family. Marvel at the intricate silk production process and visit the heritage house of H.E. Sam-El, a renowned architect for the royal family.

Optional Tours

After a short sailing, arrive in Phnom Penh, where the ship moors mid-stream with views of the city opposite.

SERENITY CRUISE

4 NIGHTS

4 NIGHTS | SIEM REAP - PHNOM PENH

DAY 4 PHNOM PENH

Welcome to Phnom Penh, a city once renowned as the “Paris of the East.” Despite its rapid development, it has retained much of its rustic charm and elegance. Phnom Penh is a remarkable city with a history and culture that spans centuries, still palpable at every street corner.

The full-day sightseeing tour begins after breakfast, allowing exploration of the city’s highlights. Start with a cyclo ride, meandering through the town and then visit historic places such as the palace and the silver pagoda. The journey takes guests to the “S21” prison, a poignant and dark chapter in Cambodia’s history during the Khmer Rouge regime of the 1970s. Afterward, pause for a delightful lunch in town before continuing to visit one of the country’s most famous history museums, “Sosoro,” and concluding the tour with a leisurely stroll through the city’s French quarter, including the iconic and aptly named monument of Wat Phnom.

In the evening, guests are invited to an engaging expert lecture in the lounge. To cap off this eventful day, indulge in a delightful open-air barbecue and gala dinner accompanied by a classic Apsara dance performance. Afterward, feel free to explore the city at night, savouring Phnom Penh’s vibrant nightlife or taking in the lively river promenade.

DAY 5 PHNOM PENH

Enjoy your last breakfast aboard the floating home before disembarking the ship. We hope guests enjoyed this fascinating river cruise, just as the crew does every single time. Moreover, take the enchanting memories and friendships along and share the stories of this amazing river - the Mighty Mekong.

CULINARY TOURS

The optional culinary tours (replacing the regular excursion in parts) provide a hands-on experience to explore local cuisines at different port of calls in Vietnam and Cambodia. Conducted as complimentary group tours for sailings aboard the ship Jayavarman only, these culinary excursions allow guests to understand not only most popular and authentic dishes in a area, they also boost the experience with close and personal encounters and joyful interactions when preparing and cooking the dishes together.

KAMPONG LAEANG | CAMBODIA

The culinary themed excursion offers in addition to the default cultural excursion the possibility to participate in a cooking demonstration. Get to know how to prepare together the quite famous snack called "Nom Kruak" which is a kind of cake made from white or brown rice. Originally cooked only one side only, the Khmer invented Nom Kruak and cooked it on both sides. This dish is a tasty pre-dinner snack often consumed by locals.

Tour included in 4- & 7-Night itineraries

ANGKOR BAN | CAMBODIA

Today, the culinary themed excursion is offering a nice highlight. In addition to the visit of the Angkor Ban village (see default excursion) the group is going to visit the house of Mr B. who used to work years ago as a young chef aboard the ship Jayavarman. When he got married, he moved to his wife's home village. Together with his "mom-in-law" and the "chef" in the household (his wife), we prepare and cook a century old soup recipe called "Samlor Korko". The soup is kind of a fish soup made with many vegetables, spices, herbs, roasted rice, accompanied with a duck egg omelette.

TAN PHONG ISLAND | VIETNAM

Via tender we head towards Tan Phong Island to visit a workshop where we can see skilled workers weaving dried water hyacinths into artistic crafts. We explore some parts of the local island life during a 15-minute motorized buggy ride along small pathways, eventually stopping at a house of a local family to visit their orchard. Get to know various kind of fruits the Mekong Delta has to offer and engage in an interactive cooking experience with the local family preparing some local dishes together.

Tour included in 3- & 7-Night itineraries

TAN CHAU | VIETNAM

Once on-shore, we walk five minutes to the nearby market. Join our guide in selecting and buying fresh ingredients for the upcoming cooking session. We take cyclos for a charming ride through town to the local Cao Dai temple. During a quick visit you get to know some insight into this particular religion as well as the special dietary practices of Cao Dai followers. We head to the temple kitchen for an hands-on cooking class, preparing special dietary dishes in an interactive and culturally enriching experience together with the local kitchen team.

Tour included in 4- & 7-Night itineraries

Optional tours and program are subject to change and will be operated as advertised on public website or collateral at the time of boarding.

CYCLING TOURS

The cycling excursions (replacing the regular excursion) offer guests a different and active way to explore waterfront and hinterland villages nestled in amazing rural landscapes along the Lower Mekong River (replacing the regular excursion). The cycling tours, available on sailings with the ship ‘The Jahan’ only require just a moderate fitness, and lead along mostly flat concrete paths or solid dirt roads. The tours are conducted in groups of maximum of eight guests. Accompanied by a local English-speaking guide these tour promise adventure and a true look behind the local scenes. At best, the cycling tours should be pre-booked together with the cruise booking. Availability onboard cannot guaranteed.
